

Visiting Lecturer Positions in the MSc in Real Estate programme

The School of Architecture, Land & Environmental Sciences announces two part-time positions in the rank of Visiting Lecturer

The School of Architecture, Land and Environmental Sciences aspires to be a centre of excellence in architecture, landscape architecture, urban and environmental design, quantity surveying, construction management, and real estate. The School offers undergraduate and postgraduate programmes and is seeking to recruit two Visiting Lecturers to teach in the Graduate programme in Real Estate.

The position of the Visiting Lecturer for teaching Real Estate Marketing in the MSc in Real Estate programme requires a Ph.D. in Real Estate Marketing or at least a Master's degree in Real Estate Marketing or alternatively a Master's degree in Real Estate with many years of experience in Real Estate marketing. Candidates are also required to be fluent in both the English and Greek language. Prior teaching experience and research in this area will be considered as plus.

The position of the Visiting Lecturer for teaching Real Estate Management in the MSc in Real Estate programme requires a Ph.D. in Real Estate Management or at least a Master's degree in Real Estate Management or alternatively a Master's degree in Real Estate with many years of experience in Real Estate management. Candidates are also required to be fluent in both the English and Greek language. Prior teaching experience and research in this area will be considered as plus.

Further particulars including details on how to apply, are available on www.nup.ac.cy/vacancies or by contacting Ms Demetria Sofroniou, Human Resources Manager, to whom applications should be addressed by electronic mail. Applications should include a cover letter and Curriculum Vitae.

For an application pack click here, tel: +357 26843300, or email: hrd@nup.ac.cy

Closing Date: 11/09/2015