

Dr Artemis D. Savvidou

Special Teaching staff of Law School (Criminal Law) Neapolis University Pafos

Lawyer, Mediator, Lecturer CPA

Address: 2 Danaes Avenus

Telephone: 003572684335

Email: artemis.savvidou@nup.ac.cy

Dr. Artemis D. Savvidou is Member of the Teaching Staff of Law School in NEAPOLIS University, Paphos (Special Teaching Staff of Law School – Criminal Law) since September 2013. For the academic year 2013-2014 she was teaching “Practice of Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure”, a course included in the 4th year of the Law school – compulsory (Cypriot Law specialization). From the academic year 2014 up until today (2018-2019 academic year): teaching self-reliantly the following subjects:

1. General Criminal Law – CY: compulsory, 1st year of studies, Law School
2. Special Criminal Law – CY: compulsory, 2nd year of studies, Law School
3. Criminal Procedure – CY: compulsory, 3rd year of studies, Law School
4. Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure Practical Issues – CY: compulsory, 4th year of studies, Law School
5. Criminology – General: optional, 2nd year of studies, Law School
6. Foreigners and Immigration/ Immigration and Asylum Law – General: optional, 3rd year of studies, Law School

For the academic year 2017-2018 was teaching Environmental Law (compulsory subject) for the MSc programme of the Architecture School: “Environmental Impacts Assessment and Sustainability Management” and for the academic year 2018-2019 was teaching on the online courses of NEAPOLIS University, as part of the subject “The pros and cons of the Cypriot Public Administration”.

In September 1994 Dr. Savvidou succeeded in the Pancyriot entry exams (7th ranking) and in 1998 obtained a B.A. in Law, Economics and Political Sciences, National Kapodistrian University of Athens. In 1998 she successfully attended a seminar organized by the Law Department of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens with the following subject: English Legal Terminology, 6 months duration. Similarly, in 1998 she successfully attended a seminar organized by the Law Department of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens with the following subject: Legal Graphology, 6 months duration. In July, 6th, 1999, after a recommendation by the Minister of the Interior of the Republic of Cyprus, Mr. Ioannis Kassoulidis and the Minister of Justice and Public Order, Mr. Nikos Kossis, Dr. A. Savvidou enrolled in the Panteion University of Athens, where she attended a series of M.A. level courses dealing with the subject "Administration and Local Government". In 2014, she has submitted an application for conducting a Doctoral Dissertation at the Law Department of the Democritus University of Thrace on the field of Criminal and Criminology Studies, which has been accepted by a decision of the General Assembly of the Faculty Department by which Prof. St. Pavlou (as supervisor), Associate Prof. Symeonidis and Associate Prof. Dimitrainas (as members) have been appointed as counseling committee as provided by law. In 2018 the General Assembly of the Faculty Department appointed for the seven-member examination committee, besides the above-mentioned members, Associate Prof. Bekas, Associate Prof. Vathiotis, Assistant Prof. Tzortzis and Assistant Prof. Kosmatos. On September 6th 2018, after open oral examination, she was qualified as Doctor of Law in the Democritus University of Thrace, on the Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure subjects. Her thesis "The thief crime and its Procedural Treatment by the Criminal Law in Cyprus. An analytical approach in comparison to the Greek Criminal Law" was assessed as "EXCELLENT" unanimously by the seven-member committee.

Dr. A. Savvidou has practiced law in Kostas Tsiridis and Co as a trainee lawyer (1998) and as Lawyer (the license was acquired on 1999 from the Legal Council of Cyprus marked as "EXCELLENT"); as Self-employed and later working with DEMETRAKIS SAVVIDES & CO LLC directors with specialisation and long successful involvement in Criminal Law cases, Dr. A. Savvidou dealt with serious cases that concerned the Society and the Media of Cyprus. (1st degree murder, homicide, personal injuries, rapes, arsons and certainly cases that involve financial crime, thefts, robberies, corruption in Public services, Municipalities, communities and banking institutions, money laundering etc); as Accredited mediator (Justice Minister), after an announcement on the Official Journal and a relevant decision from the Justice and Public Order Ministry and the Police Chief, her name is included in the lecturer list of the Cyprus Police Academy for the following subjects/modules: Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure, Evidence, Criminology, Human Rights.

She is acting also as Legal Counselor in Companies (LLC) in Cyprus and abroad.

Dr. A. Savvidou demonstrates participation in Scientific Meetings and Seminars of short duration with chief executives of the European Union (organizer Learning, Research and Development Centre, Athens); attendance of various seminars of short duration on different matters (European, local facilities etc.) organized in Athens either from University Institutes or from various Scientific Journals; cooperation in times with the Drafting Group (as a member) of the twenty-year publishing scientific Rev. Dec. Loc. Gov. Reg. Dev. (with the peer review system) Athens; participation as a Project Coordinator in a Scientific Study of post-graduate students of the University of NEAPOLIS in Cyprus on matters of European interest; participation in Scientific events organized by different municipalities in Greece, University (Cyprus) etc.; Statement (of hers) on Scientific Event of the Municipality of Acharnes is included in a special issuance funded by the Niarchos Foundation. Also Dr. A. Savvidou has been selected by a committee consisted of University Professors, to participate in a series of Scientific Events in Brussels, with statements or observations, organized by various European Union Services (European Parliament, Committee of the Regions, Economic and Social Committee etc.) on matters of European interest (2013-2014); has been member of the Scientific Committee for the evaluation of texts in scientific journals (Athens), a member in evaluation Committees on M.A. Theses of the Public Administration Department, NEAPOLIS University of Paphos and participated in Scientific Conferences organized by Universities and other Institutions in Cyprus and Abroad with statements in some of them.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Her research interests include the study of Criminal Law (substantive) particularly aims of punishment and penal law, corruption, property offences etc, Criminal Procedure particularly evidence, evidentiary prohibitions in criminal procedure and constitutionality of provisions, Comparative Criminal Law, criminal policy, protect of human rights, International and European Criminal Law, Criminology particularly critical criminology, Aliens and Immigration Law.

PUBLICATIONS (2012-2018)

Monographs

1. "The crime of theft and its Procedural Treatment based on the Criminal Law of Cyprus. An analytical approach in comparison to the Greek Criminal Law", Komotini (Paphos) 2018.
2. Law and the Media: a comparative analysis on Greece and Cyprus. Criminal aspects. A. Massouras, A. Savvidou (forthcoming)
3. The most important European Council and European Union regulations regarding Human Rights. Legitimate expectations, irrelevant proceedings. Paphos 2017.
4. Local authorities and Social Inequalities, Paphos 2017 (forthcoming, Theodoropoulous publishing house, Athens)
5. Social and Political Theory key issues, Paphos 2017 (forthcoming)
6. Debate issues: European Union and Member States' regulations, Athens 2014, published by K.E.M.E.A., (No 7080, National Library of Greece)
7. The constitutional shell of the Self-governing Local Structures. Origins, theoretical approaches, current practices. Comparative overview: Greece, EU Member States, Athens 2014, Published by K.E.M.E.A (No 7079, National Library of Greece)

Papers in Peer Review Journals

1. The Fundamental Rights map of the European Union: noble intentions, irrelevant approaches (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N 88 Athens 2017).
2. Most recent Regulations regarding Criminal Cases within the E.U. The EAW case (European Arrest Warrant), with a special report on Cyprus. (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N 87 Athens 2017.)
3. The equality between working Men and Women: Irrelevant Regulations improper practices (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N 83 Athens 2016.)
4. Unlawful conduct within the workplace (p. 1176-182) (A. D. Savvidou) NOMIKO BHMA, Publication of Bar Association of Athens, Volume 63, Issue 1, January 2015.
5. State and Corruption. National and International aspects (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N 79 Athens 2015.)
6. Refugees and Human Rights (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N. Athens 2015.)
7. Debate issues: Regulations with a criminal tone on behalf of some States (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N 76 Athens 2014.)
8. The Administrative Systems of Member States of the European Union. Constitutional regulations and legislation. New approaches. (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N 73 Athens 2013.)
9. Merging of local authorities: The case of Cyprus. (Review of Decentralization of Local Government and Regional Development, Issue/ N 23 Athens 2001.)

Notes (from A. Savvidou) on M.A. theses of Panteion University of Athens (M.A. programme “Applied Economics and Regional Development”):

10. Konst. Zombos: Subject: The role of the Local Authorities on boosting the small and medium-sized companies and the Entrepreneurship of Greece. Analysis of empiric examples (Inspection of Decentralisation of Local Authorities and Regional Development, Issue/ N 86 Athens 2016)
11. Yorgos N. Chatziyeoryiou: Innovative methods on educating and training the senior management of the Local authorities' Organisations: the case of the central Macedonia region (Inspection of Decentralisation of Local Authorities and Regional Development, Issue/ N 86 Athens 2016.)

Proceedings in Scientific Conferences

1. Guest speaker in the Conference of Criminal Law in the three Greek Law Schools (Athens, Thessaloniki, Komotini) and Law School of Cyprus, which is organised by the The Democritus University of Thrace Law School on the 4th and 5th of May with the topic “contemporary matters on Criminal Law”. My statement's topic was the “research during the Cypriot Criminal Procedure, constitutionality issues”.
2. 2nd Pan-Cyprian Conference of Criminal Law- Criminology, statement title: “State and Corruption. National and International Aspects, March 2015, NICOSIA University, Nicosia, Cyprus.
3. Event of Cypriot Study Centre with the subject: The Islamic fundamentalism growth in the Middle East and the case of the “Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant” case. Paphos, 07/01/2014, statement's title: “International cooperation in Criminal Cases”
4. Rapporteur after an invitation from the Ministry of Education and Culture, on a Gymnasium event, organised by the Ministry of Education and Culture of the Republic of Cyprus for the training of the school directors, Paphos January 2017, Paphos (Ethnarchi Makariou III Lyceum, event hall, Paphos) entitled “Juvenile delinquency. Crisis management”.
5. Guest speaker, invited by the (Greek) Centre for Security Studies on a two-day educational programme for senior members of the Greek Police with the subject “the objective of the Greek Police within a Globalisation state, new forms of crimes and Social Multiculturalism”, Athens 10-11/07/2017, statement's title: “the international experience: record of the organization and relevant actions from the police in other states. The case of Cyprus”.
6. Speaker on an event of the NEAPOLIS University in Paphos, December 2015, statement's title: “Refugees in Cyprus (and all over the globe) and Human Rights”.
7. Speaker on an event of the NEAPOLIS University in Paphos, May 2016, statement's title: “The private Universities and their role on the development of the society”

Publications in Collective Volumes/ Chapters in national selective volumes:

1. Chapter 29: State and corruption: National and International Aspects, Disparate Management Approaches. (pages 344-349) Art. Savvidou. American Publisher's IGI Global volume, entitled “Policies and Practices for Sustainable Economic Growth and Regional Development

Awards/honours

- During Nikos Anastasiadis' presidency and Mr Ionas Nikolaos being in charge of the Ministry of Justice & Public Order, honorary diploma, distinguished as a fighting lawyer, Presidential Palace, Nicosia, 21/10/16.
- Award of 1st place accompanied with prize money for the participation in a relevant competition of the Survey on regional development Centre my paper with the subject: “Regulations regarding administrative systems and local structures of E.U. Member-States”, Athens 31/01/2014.
- My awarding for securing the first place in Cyprus in the exams of Legal Council of the Republic of Cyprus by the Attorney-General of the Republic, Mr. Alekos Markidis and the President of the Supreme Court of Cyprus, Nicosia, 1999.