Candidates are expected to teach a wide variety of basic and advanced courses in their discipline. Full-time faculty members are also expected to attend faculty meetings and university events, serve on committees, and engage in academic scholarship and professional development activities.

Qualifications and experience

We are seeking applicants for the position of Professor in Banking and Finance. Applicants who research in Banking (Empirical and Theoretical) or Finance (Corporate, entrepreneurship, FinTech, Financial Innovation and Investments) are encouraged to apply. In this position you will: design and teach banking related units at undergraduate and postgraduate levels to culturally-diverse student cohorts, and provide curriculum development, contribute to the research strengths of the discipline, including the pursuit of research grants and regular publication in journals of high standing, supervise higher degree research students, be involved in interdisciplinary collaborations within the University and with external stakeholders, contribute to academic administration. This position is your opportunity to join a high calibre, dynamic group that is well resourced, very active in research and teaches a wide variety of banking and finance courses that attract the very best students from Cyprus and internationally.

Applicants with research interests and experience in one or more of the following areas are especially encouraged to apply:

- FinTech
- Corporate Finance
- International Finance
- Security and portfolio management
- Investment
- Money and Banking
- Lending and bank risks
- Regulatory Policies

The applicants should hold a doctoral degree in finance and/or Banking or in a related field. The applicants will be reviewed based on their research, teaching and activity in the scientific community. Special consideration is given to candidates that have demonstrated their ability to produce high quality research in the broad field of Financial Economics and Banking.

Applicants are expected to have demonstrated a high level of academic competence, have experience of leading academic research, good teaching skills and extensive teaching experience, as well as strong international visibility within the academic community. In addition, experience of doctoral education, applying for external funding, international research co-operation and academic expert assignments, as well as experience of participation in administrative tasks within an academic department, faculty or university are expected.

The following additional qualifications are also considered as merits: experience of responsibility for a degree programme, a subject, department, faculty or university, successfully raising external research funds, experience in leading the development of teaching, and pedagogical education.

We offer a stimulating research environment, including a research seminar series, a PhD program, generous research funding, and all the opportunities of a dynamic private University.

The candidate is expected to show evidence of strong teaching skills and/or professional experience and a commitment to research excellence. He/she will teach at undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate levels and also contribute to the design and development of the Department's programs.
