

Integrated BIM

Our growing team consists of innovative and young individuals who are eager and motivated to achieve higher results on a daily basis and to escalate the business to the next level.

Our mission is to reduce conflicts in projects while maintaining fluent communication, collaboration, and information sharing.

BIM Technician INTERN

Integrated BIM is looking for a BIM Technician Intern, who has a dedication for technology and innovation to join a young and energetic team that is being involved in international projects

You will be working together with a fun collaborative team that is willing to work on exciting and challenging projects

Requirements:

- Experience with BIM;
- Experience with Revit;
- Experience in Construction Technology;

If you are looking for an amazing internship experience, while working with the latest BIM technologies and developing innovative solutions, please send us your CV and a cover letter to hr@integratedbim.com now!

Integrated BIM is an international team that includes designers, engineers, BIM, and project managers who have been delivering Design and Building Information Modeling and Management Services worldwide since 2015.

We ensure a working atmosphere that encourages growth, flexibility, and creativity, as well as a company culture in innovating new methods and procedures.