EU Policy Analysis Strand

The Policy Analysis strand is multidisciplinary at heart, fusing (a) policy content analysis and (b) the use of analytics soft ware and techniques to analyse policies with Eurostat data. Participants will have the opportunity to apply the newly acquired skills in the form of a capstone project.

EU Social & Foreign Affairs Strand

The Social and Foreign affairs strand serves as a unique insight into European integration along with insights in EU's global policies, touching on security and strategy, social policies, local policies and governance, issues of trust and multicultural diversity.
