

Job Vacancy

Are you a junior Database Administrator and looking to become part of a people-centric and progressive organisation? At Hermes Airports, the airport operator of Larnaka and Pafos airports, we are looking to recruit passionate, dedicate and eager to learn Database Administrator based at Larnaka airport.

At Hermes Airports we focus on the employee experience and wellbeing, fostering an environment where our people feel valued, recognized, respected and developed. Throughout their employment journey our people have the opportunity to experience our innovative People practices and enjoy numerous benefits.

Short description:

The Database Administrator is reporting to the Senior Manager IT & T. The Database Administrator is responsible for the design, implementation and support of the corporate and airports' systems and databases.

Main Responsibilities:

- the consistent focus on ensuring confidentiality, integrity and availability of data and systems
- the validation and monitoring of the redundancy, stability, performance and scalability of systems
- the installment, configuration and maintenance of the SQL Servers including monitoring the health of SQL instance and performance
- the patch management and upgrades for the databases of the servers
- the daily backup monitoring and administration
- the high availability of infrastructure
- the implementation of disaster recovery tests

Required Qualifications:

- BSc in Computer Science or Computer Engineering or any other related field
- Familiar with Windows Domain environment and with database administration using Microsoft SQL Server
- Experience with Microsoft SQL Server backup and recovery scenario
- Very good knowledge of MS SQL (T-SQL) and MS BI stack (SSRS, SSIS, SSAS)
- Very good knowledge and understanding of networking (TCP/IP), virtualization and related systems required for devices to use network resources successfully (DNS, DHCP).
- Fluency in Greek and English languages

Required Skills & Abilities:

- Innovation
- Problem Solving
- Critical & Analytical Thinking
- Teamwork
- Initiative
- Stress management
- Flexibility & adaptability

If you are interested for the position and aspire to make the difference and contribute to our company's vision, you can submit your CV through our website <http://bitly.ws/u45Q> no later than to 15 February 2023.

All applications will be treated as confidential. To find out more about our company, you can visit our website at www.hermesairports.com