

Job Vacancy

Are you fascinated working at the aviation industry and looking to become part of a people-centric and progressive organisation? At Hermes Airports, the airport operator of Larnaka and Pafos airports, we are looking to recruit passionate, dedicate and eager to learn GTU Coordinator based at Pafos airport, on a seasonal contract (March – December).

At Hermes Airports we focus on the employee experience and wellbeing, fostering an environment where our people feel valued, recognized, respected and developed. Throughout their employment journey our people have the opportunity to experience our innovative People practices and enjoy numerous benefits.

Short description:

The GTU Coordinator is reporting to the Manager Commercial. Main responsibility of the position is to ensure the smooth operation of the parking areas in line with the department's policies and procedures.

Responsibilities:

- effective supervision of subcontractors and parking tenants
- patrolling of the parking areas and service roads
- provision of high levels of customer service to the parking customers
- preparation of the daily reports

The interested candidates shall be able to work shifts on a 24-hour basis.

Required Qualifications:

- High School Degree
- Very good knowledge of MS Office
- Very good knowledge of Greek and English languages

Required Skills & Abilities:

- Customer oriented
- Teamwork
- Flexibility & adaptability
- Stress management
- Problem solving
- Critical thinking

If you are interested for the position and aspire to make the difference and contribute to our company's vision, you can submit your CV through our website <http://bitly.ws/yZyb> no later than to 31 March 2023.

All applications will be treated as confidential.

To find out more about our company, you can visit our website at www.hermesairports.com