

Computer Engineering Graduates – CEG/04/23

This is a great opportunity for Newly Graduates who want to start working in User's Technical Support Field. Our client a well-established IT service provider company wishes to employ a team of IT technical support professionals.

Position's requirements

The individuals will be part of the company's Technical Department and will provide technical support to the users of a specific governmental customer being located to client's premises one in each city (Nicosia, Ammochostos/Paralimni and Pafos). The main duties of the individual will be to learn well the company's software/platform which has recently been launched to the client, this will be accomplished by internal training and provide technical support to the users ensuring that they use the SW/platform properly with no problems.

The employment period will be for 6 months.

Position's Qualifications

- University degree in Computer engineering or computer science
- Previous experience in similar position will be considered as an advantage
- Very good interpersonal and communication skills
- Problem solving and drive to learn

Benefits

Working Hours: 07.30 -15.30 Monday to Friday. Salary package up to 1.200€ gross monthly according to experience and qualifications.

If you are interested to explore this opportunity, feel free to apply through this link:
https://www.jobmatch.com.cy/?job_listing=computer-engineering-graduates-nicosia-ammochostos-paralimni-pafos-ceg-04-23