

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

Join us at the Closing Conference of the Jean Monnet Chair, taking place at the beautiful Coral Beach Hotel in Pafos.

This highly engaging and significant event, organized by the School of Law of NUP in collaboration with esteemed institutions, aims to explore pressing issues surrounding asset recovery, the fight against money laundering, and financial crime.

The Jean Monnet Chair, actively involved in research and academic teaching on "Targeting criminal proceeds in the EU" since 2020, provides a solid foundation for the conference's key themes. Through academic teaching, research and outreach events, the Jean Monnet Chair and NUP have successfully expanded the reach and impact of the project, promoting academic collaboration, knowledge dissemination, and public engagement.

In addition to its main theme, this conference will take a moment to honor the memory of two esteemed jurists, the former president of the Supreme Court of Cyprus, Mr. Petros Artemis, and Stefanos Pavlou, Professor at the Law School of Democritus University of Thrace. The conference will also be part of the Continuing Professional Education of Lawyers, accredited with 6 Units.

Distinguished speakers, including law school professors, prosecutors, and former judges, will bring their expertise and specialized knowledge to the forefront. Join us as we delve deep into the challenges and solutions surrounding asset recovery, money laundering, and financial crime. There are no participation fees.
